++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Bright spells, especially in east. Scattered showers breaking out.

Today:
Bright or sunny spells with scattered showers, mainly over Western Isles at first, developing further east this afternoon. Some heavy showers are likely later this afternoon and evening, especially over north Highlands. Maximum temperature 20 deg C (68 deg F).

Tonight:
Last of the showers over north Highlands soon dying out to leave a dry night with clear periods developing. Light southwesterly winds. Minimum temperature 5 deg C (41 deg F).

Sunday:
Most places will have a dry, bright day with sunny periods. Thickening cloud and a little drizzle will reach Outer Hebrides during the evening. Quite warm with light winds. Maximum temperature 19 deg C (66 deg F).

Outlook for Monday to Wednesday:
High pressure will maintain mostly dry, settled conditions with sunny spells and light winds. However cloudier skies and a little rain will edge in from the west on Wednesday.
